

Autauga County Commission

Notice of Public Hearing

Regarding FY 2022 CDBG Application Submission

The Autauga County Commission will hold a public hearing on Tuesday, July 5, 2022, at 4:45 PM, at the Autauga County Commission located at 135 North Court Street, Prattville, Alabama. The purpose of this hearing is to allow public comment on the County's current and future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program. The following will be discussed and information made available at the hearing:

Consideration of submission of one or more FY 2022 CDBG applications and discussion of activities viewed as the County's most pressing community development needs, including economic development possibilities.

CDBG funds may be used to primarily benefit low and moderate income persons. Information to be presented regarding the upcoming FY 2022 grant cycle will include the anticipated amount of grant funds available, the range of eligible activities that may be undertaken, and discussion of possible projects for which the Autauga County Commission should consider for submission of an application to the State of Alabama requesting CDBG funds.

All citizens are invited and urged to attend and express their views regarding item outlined above.

Any person with a disability or communication impairment should contact the Autauga County Commission at (334) 358-6700, if special accommodations are needed. The County Commission will attempt to accommodate all reasonable requests.
